Please complete and send your completed form and logo to info@CapitalsCoalition.org

The Capitals Coalition unifies the Natural Capital Coalition and the Social & Human Capital Coalition to create an open and inclusive, collaborative space to harmonize and enable thinking across all the capitals.

The Coalitions were created by and includes businesses, governments, finance, science and academia, associations, finance and standard setters. It brings together over 400 organisations, with many thousands more involved in projects and activities all around the world.

By joining the community, you are agreeing to collaborate with others who have united under a common vision of a world that conserves and enhances natural, social and human capital, and who are working together to transform the way that we make decisions.

Benefits

Collaboration

You will have the opportunity to regularly engage through various online and in person activities with the wide network of leading natural and/or social and human capital organizations and experts. With support from the Coalitions teams you will be able to identify the partners and initiatives that best align with your work, develop or take part in collaborative projects, and offer your experience to help other Coalition organisations to achieve their aims.

Communication

You will receive the latest curated thinking and practice on through newsletters and a program of online and live events. With preferred access to networks, platforms and events around the world, you will be able to develop a greater understanding of natural, social and human capital thinking, the benefits this can provide, and how it fits in to and compliments the many other initiatives that you are aware of or involved in.

Recognition

Coalition organizations are recognized as leaders. You will have the opportunity to share your experience with a wide audience within the community and beyond in sector, national, and international forums.

Requirements to become a Coalition Organization

Participation is open to any organization (not on an individual level) who:

1. Subscribes to the our vision of a world that conserves and enhances natural, social and human capital;
2. Can define how it will collaboratively contribute to activities that support natural and/or social and human capital thinking;
3. Does not wish to compete with, or subvert, the work of the Coalitions.
